GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS LEE TO CENTER FOR NURSING BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Janice Lee of Otto to the North Carolina Center for Nursing Board of Directors.

Lee is the chief nursing officer for Angel Medical Center in Franklin. She is a member of the Macon County Department on Aging, Healthy Carolinians of Macon County and the N.C. Organization of Nurse Leaders. Lee received her associate's degree from Darton College, bachelor's degree in nursing from Georgia Southwestern College and master's degree in nursing from Valdosta State University.

The board of directors sets policy and governs operations of the Center for Nursing. It develops a strategic statewide plan for nursing manpower in North Carolina and convenes various groups representative of nurses, other health care providers, business and industry, consumers, legislators and educators. There are 16 members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints four members.
